2/1 Crystal Painting Lecture * Seahorse, Small Moon Shawl* (Racial Reconciliation: Reverting Transatlantic Slavery in Contemporary Art)
Monday, February 1 2:00
Daley Library Conference Room
1000m 9:00am

2/2 Opening Reception: Thrive Night The 2016 celebration opens with a thrive night of Black History Month, celebrating the achievements and contributions of African Americans.
Tuesday, February 2 3:00
Student Center East
Room 405
5:00pm 7:00pm

2/3 African American Cultural Center Open House
May 2004 marks the 35th Anniversary of the African-American Cultural Center. Open House is a major event, an opportunity to discuss and celebrate the achievements of African Americans. Visit the Cultural Center gallery, library, and offices to learn more about our historical legacy and programs. The event is free and open to the public.
Wednesday, February 3 10:00am-5:00pm
African American Cultural Center

2/4 Exhibition Opening: A Choreography of Contagion
Proclaimed by the African-American Cultural Center in collaboration with the UIC School of Nursing, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion, the event focuses on the importance of health issues such as HIV/AIDS and the need for awareness and prevention. The exhibition will feature works by African-American artists and discuss the impact of HIV/AIDS on the community.
Thursday, February 4 6:00pm-8:00pm
科技进步研究室

2/5 Beyond the Headlines: My Sister’s Story
Join Shannon Cooper, sister of Sandra Bland, who discusses the life and legacy of her sister and what it means to be an entrepreneur in the justice space.
Thursday, February 4 6:00pm-8:00pm
Science Center East
Room 101

2/6 Let’s Talk: Taking Care of Ourselves White We Heal Our Community
This event will focus on healing and community building, particularly in the context of mental health and wellness.
Thursday, February 4 6:00pm-8:00pm
Science Center East
Room 101

2/7 The We Don’t: Black Women in Social Movements
The African-American Cultural Center, Women’s Network to Women Initiative hosts a panel to discuss the role of black women in social justice movements.
Wednesday, February 10 4:30pm-6:30pm
Student Center East
Room 3003

2/11 Color of Expression: A Night of Student Art in Honor of Black History Month
The Students for the Advancement of Black History invite you to join their annual Black History Month celebration.

Sponsors
African American Studies Program
African American Cultural Center
African American Studies Association
Black Student Union
Center for Young Women
Center for Young Men
Department of African American Studies
Department of Sociology
Department of Women’s Studies
Electrical and Computer Engineering
Health Care for the Homeless
Health Equity Project
Health Disparities Research Center
Institute for Urban Studies
Mental Health and Cultural Competency
Women's Studies
Women’s Leadership Program

Colleges 16
Department of African American Studies
Department of Sociology
Pratt Minority Students for the Advancement of Public Health
Department of Women’s Studies
Vega Benjamin J. Dreaming: Understanding Students for African-American Brotherhood